Clark Atlanta University Corporate Development Initiative

INROADS and Clark Atlanta University have partnered to create a corporate and community leadership training program called the Clark Atlanta University Corporate Development Initiative.

The objective of this initiative is to build the requisite skills and qualifications of Clark Atlanta University 1st, 2nd, and 3rd year students so that they are competitive and successful in internships and full-time positions.

This initiative is a pre-internship component to the INROADS internship process and experience.
